

Again, this shows that FCC doesn't stick to it's own standards. Your deregualtion created disaster in television and radio content. And, now that something better comes along, you're going to destroy it. The NAB is complaining because they have inferior product. Listen to the people, not the ones that line your pocket with cash - for once.